

BISHOPSTEIGNTON PARISH COUNCIL

SCHEME OF DELEGATION

Principles of Delegation

1. Section 101 of the Local Government Act 1972 provides:
 - That a Council may delegate its powers (except those incapable of delegation) to a committee or an officer.
 - A Committee may delegate its powers to an officer.
 - The delegating body may exercise Powers that have been delegated.
2. Any delegation to a Committee or the Proper Officer shall be exercised in compliance with the Council's Standing Orders, any other policies or conditions imposed by the Council and within the law.
3. In an emergency the Proper Officer is empowered to carry out any function of the Council
4. Where the Proper Officer or Committee are contemplating any action under delegated powers, which is likely to have a significant impact in a particular area, they should also consult the Members, and must ensure that they obtain appropriate legal, financial and other specialist advice before action is taken.

Delegation to The Proper Officer

Matters reserved for Council or Committee

5. Subject to urgent items (see paragraph 6 below), the following matters shall be referred to the relevant Committee or Council, where appropriate.
Any matter which:
 - (a) requires a new policy; or
 - (b) requires an alteration to an existing policy (other than a minor amendment); or
 - (c) would be contrary to the policy framework; or
 - (d) involves expenditure or a reduction in income, for which there is no sufficient budgetary provision; or
 - (e) is an issue of principle as determined by The Council; or
 - (f) in the opinion of the Proper Officer, cannot in law or in accordance with the Standing Orders be decided by an Officer; or
 - (g) upon which a Committee has requested a report; or
 - (h) a member has requested an item to be put on an agenda under Standing Orders; or
 - (i) in the opinion of the officer concerned, should be determined by a Committee; or

Urgent Items

6. Matters of urgency, as determined by the Proper Officer, shall be delegated to the Proper Officer or appropriate committee in consultation with the Chair and/or Vice-Chair of the Council subject to a report being made to the next meeting of the appropriate Committee.
This allows the Proper Officer to do anything expedient and necessary to ensure the continuous business of the council, and to deal with mandatory undertakings to prevent the authority from incurring liability during the period that the delegation is applicable. The Proper Officer, as decision maker, will consult with the Chair and/or Vice Chair but on these matters and during the period of the emergency the Council should acknowledge that the clerk is the decision maker.

Delegation to Committees

7. Each Committee has delegated authority to decide matters within their terms of reference except for the following matters, which are reserved for Council:
